What is this Fund?

Type	The Fund is a sub-fund of HANetf II ICAV (the ICAV), an open-ended Irish collective asset-management vehicle umbrella fund with segregated liability between sub-funds, with variable capital established under the laws of Ireland and authorised by the Central Bank under the UCITS Regulation 2011, as amended. The Fund aims to achieve capital growth through exposure to a portfolio of equities from the technology sector and income through the associated dividends and option premiums
Objectives and Policies	In order achieve its investment objective, the Sub-Fund will aim to: (i) invest at least 80% of its assets in a portfolio of equities or equity related securities, such as global depositary receipts (GDR) and American depositary receipts (ADR) of large capitalisation companies from the technology and technology related sectors; (ii) seek additional income through the implementation of option income strategies based upon listed call options. The Investment Manager will select constituents from the 200 largest, by market capitalisation, listed companies in the technology and technology related sectors. The Investment Manager will implement option strategies using listed call options on an underlying security to generate additional income. The two types of option income strategies which will be followed, will be either a traditional covered call strategy and a covered call spread strategy. The strategy adopted, will depend on market conditions and the ability to generate income on an underlying security. The fund will give priority to dividends, rather than to capital growth, and may at times distribute capital gains. The Fund is actively managed.
Depository	U.S. Bank Europe DAC trading as U.S. Bank Depositary Services Limited (the Depository)

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Summary Risk Indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this Fund compared to other funds. It shows how likely it is that the Fund will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you. We have classified this product as 4 out of 7, which is a medium risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium level, and poor market conditions could impact the Fund's capacity to pay you.

What happens if HANetf Management Limited is unable to pay out?

HANetf Management Limited, as PRIIPS manufacturer of the Fund, is not obliged to make any payment in relation to the Fund, such obligations being those of the Fund itself. The assets of the Fund are kept separately from those of the Manager. An insolvency or default of the Manager should not result in the Fund suffering any financial loss in relation to its assets. The amount the Fund is obliged to pay out is linked to the net assets of the Fund so it is unlikely that the Fund will be unable to pay out unless there is an operational error or an insolvency or default by the Depositary which holds the Fund's assets on its behalf. In the event of the insolvency or default of the Depositary, securities held by the Depositary on behalf of the Fund should be protected but the Fund may suffer loss in relation to cash and certain other assets which are not protected. Investment in the Fund is not covered by any investor protection scheme.
